

Fueled with a passion for people development and 20+ years experience, Dianne is a seasoned speaker, consultant and Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach who is committed to the personal and professional development of herself and others.

Dianne's strength of "learning" fuels her own desire for personal and professional growth and in turn fuels her calling. With an overwhelming ability to connect content to real life stories, Dianne quickly engages audiences and moves them to laughter, connectedness and next steps.

Dianne's belief in each person's unique and personal greatness is what drives her to encourage and challenge people to celebrate their own path, identify their individual "Next Best Step" and "Own Their Own Success".

As a young adult, fresh from college, Dianne found herself presenting to groups of 500+ physicians on Medicare fraud and abuse and fell in love. Not with a physician, but with engaging audiences.

Her career has taken her across the US, to facilitate and motivate professional change within corporations and people. She has developed and delivered hundreds of presentations both technical and skills based; from systems to sales, customer service, leading innovation and change, team building, dynamic leadership, and more.

Today, Dianne focuses her energy specifically on helping intentional learners identify

What Makes Them great
